

Somerville Public Schools

Collaborative Professional Learning Academy

Presents

Excitement for 21st Century Learners

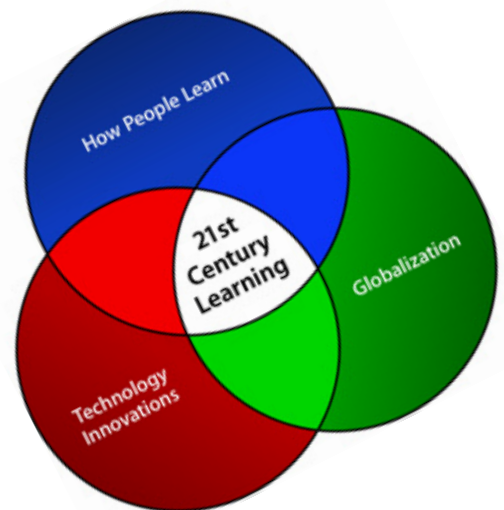

Date: Wednesday, August 4, 2010

Time: 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

*Presenter: Beverly Plein
New Jersey Department of Education*

Location: Somerville High School - Room 105

Work with Beverly Plein, the expert in technology at the New Jersey Department of Education, to learn of the free technology resources available for all teachers to use in their classes, regardless of level or curricular area taught. This exciting presentation is unique to the Somerville Public Schools and provides opportunities for collegial collaboration to ensure that all students are prepared for the 21st century. Bring a laptop if you have one. Computers are available as needed.

Register online at the district's website: www.somervillenjk12.org
Click on District Information and then Professional Development