Be on time to class. Tardiness to class will result in teacher assigned detentions.

Be prepared. Bring a writing utensil, all books, a charged Chromebook, and assignments to class. If you are absent, it is your responsibility to check Google Classroom for any new assignment.

Be polite and respectful. No inappropriate comments will be tolerated. You must show respect for the teacher and every peer in the class.

Be a participant in class discussions. Everyone is expected to actively participate in class each day.

All assignments are subject to a grade whether specified in the assignment or not; complete all work with integrity and depth of perspective.

Grading Rules:

Review the grading policy in your agenda.

In addition, please note:

No assignments will be accepted late. You are given a sufficient amount of time for all assignments to be completed and it is your responsibility to submit them on time. If you are absent, the assignment is due the first day you return to class.

Remember that homework is to be done independently and to the best of your ability. It must be complete and reflect the expectations of an Honors course.

You should have a notebook or folder for the course.
