This is My Culture

You will make a poster or Google Presentation (see the back) that shows what your culture is all about. Please be sure to take all the time necessary to create a thoughtful, well-planned project that will reflect you and your culture with pride and respect. You are basing this project on a very important person – you! This project is due Monday, November 23rd.

Your project must include:

1. A picture of yourself (a photo or self-portrait)
2. A picture of your family (photo or drawing)

Your project must include four of the following choices:

✓ Put a check mark next to the four other things you plan to include.

- A picture that represents the country your family is from, like flags, maps or symbols
- A picture of clothing you wear on special occasions
- A picture that represents a value, such as honesty, that is important to your family
- Foods you like to eat
- Sports you play or watch
- An example of the language that you speak
- An example of your religion, belief system
- An example of your favorite kind of music
- Traditions your family has

Labels and descriptions must be included for each item on your poster -- All captions must be typed!

Turn to the back →
How will you present your culture?

✓ Put a check mark next to the option you select to present your culture.

________ Make a poster

________ Create a Google Presentation (requires computer at home)

I am aware that my child has a project due in social studies on Monday, November 23, 2015 worth a test grade.

Parent/Guardian signature:

________________________________________________________________________

Grading Rubric:

You will receive:

5 Points ▶ (30 points total) for each of the six items you choose to include on your poster

5 Points ▶ (30 points total) for labeling and describing the six items with a caption
    • Bullets not sentences

20 points ▶ (20 points total) for staying on task and not distracting others while working in class

20 points ▶ (20 points total) for presentation (not reading from slides, eye contact and clear, loud volume)

100 Total possible points